

Annual Ridership Summary

CY	Detroit-Chicago	Grand Rapids-Chicago	Port Huron-Chicago	Toronto/PH-Chicago	Toronto-Chicago	Grand Total
1994	401,047	70,995			117,100	589,142
1995	366,365	45,159			111,773	523,297
1996	383,426	58,516			111,348	553,290
1997	414,601	65,065			125,126	604,792
1998	365,143	65,788			112,168	543,099
1999	334,946	69,934			113,864	518,744
2000	313,255	61,102			106,866	481,223
2001	294,570	59,437			103,197	457,204
2002	295,550	63,596			88,045	447,191
2003	344,107	75,606			83,530	503,243
2004	379,677	90,522		98,356		568,555
2005	411,092	98,299	115,741			625,132
2006	444,319	103,912	124,953			673,184
2007	455,020	106,463	130,063			691,546
2008	474,479	111,575	138,604			724,658
2009	431,128	99,691	132,602			663,421
2010	503,964	103,785	168,248			775,997
2011	487,439	107,122	186,094			780,655
2012	495,643	109,501	187,991			793,135
2013	498,288	102,932	194,776			795,996
2014	486,463	102,626	188,374			777,463
2015	458,710	91,011	179,716			729,437
2016	401,585	90,922	186,189			678,696
2017	474,751	94,276	186,156			755,183
2018	491,756	96,643	184,722			773,121
2019	495,034	96,382	179,070			770,486
2020	139,225	29,916	68,171			237,312
2021	219,629	65,531	120,074			405,234
2022	381,053	89,540	153,396			623,989
2023	436,230	87,480	173,172			696,882

Prior to 2004, service was provided between Toronto and Chicago through Port Huron. As of April 25, 2004 this service terminates in Port Huron. Thus, Toronto-Chicago, Toronto/Port Huron-Chicago and Port Huron-Chicago, all refer to the same corridor.

As of 3/1/24